

Brian Farrell

(+353) 086 4521276

farrelb6@tcd.ie

Second Year Computer Science, Trinity College Dublin. Passion for Computer Science and Environmentalism.

SKILLS

Programming Languages: Java, C, C++, Assembly Language, Matlab, Verilog, HTML, CSS.

Experience using Subversion and Docker for college assignments, as well as strong problem solving skills.

Leadership and people skills developed from being a core member of various student environmental movements in college.

First year programming project team lead and manager.

EXPERIENCE

Londis, Castleknock

2016

- Ran the till and various services provided

Trinity College Environmental Society

2017

Committee member

- Active member on the TCD Environmental Society committee
- Helped organise and run a range of events

Fossil Free Trinity College (Student Environmental Movement)

2016-2018

Key member and leader of the successful student movement

- Organised and ran events
- Recruited new members.
- Communicated with contacts in various environmental movements to run joint events.

Captain Socials Rugby Castleknock College 2016

- Strong leadership skills required
- Reached Semi-Finals of our Cup

EDUCATION

Trinity College Dublin: Computer Science

2018-2022

Achieved a first class honor and a Book Prize in my first year examinations.

Trinity College Dublin: Earth Sciences

2016 - 2018

Achieved a first class honor in my first year, I decided to transfer to computer science as I had more of a passion for the field.